Real Estate Finance and Investments 17th Edition by Brueggeman CH01 Answer Key

Test name: CH01

1) TRUE

We generally use the term real estate to mean land and all things permanently attached.

2) TRUE

Ownership rights associated with real estate are referred to as real property.

3) TRUE

The quitclaim deed simply says that the grantor “quits” whatever “claim” he or she has in the property (which may well be none) in favor of the grantee.

4) FALSE

A quitclaim deed offers the grantee the least protection. Such a deed simply conveys to the grantee whatever rights, interests, and title that the grantor may have in the property. No warranties are made about the nature of these rights and interests or of the quality of the grantor’s title to the property.

5) FALSE

The term real estate is used to refer to things that are not movable such as land and improvements permanently attached to the land, and ownership rights associated with the real estate are referred to as real property.

6) TRUE

Real Estate Finance and Investments 17th Edition by Brueggeman CH01

A fee simple estate, also known as a fee simple absolute estate, is the freehold estate that represents the most complete form of ownership of real estate.

7) TRUE

A general warranty deed is the most commonly used deed in real estate transactions and the most desirable type of deed from the buyer's perspective. It offers the most comprehensive warranties about the quality of the title.

8) FALSE

State laws generally give contractors, laborers, or suppliers of materials a certain period of time following the completion of work or delivery of materials during which to file their lien. When the lien is filed, it "relates back" and takes priority over all liens filed after the time when materials were first delivered or work was first performed on the real estate. As a result, until the end of the time allowed for filing (generally 60 days), a purchaser of an interest in newly constructed or improved real estate cannot be sure that the interest will be unencumbered or that the interest will have the priority bargained for.

9) TRUE

An easement is a nonpossessory interest in land. It is the right to use land that is owned or leased by someone else for some special purpose. Reciprocal easements allow access across both properties, thereby enhancing customer traffic flow and shopping opportunities.

10) TRUE

In practice, owners of properties that are newly constructed or renovated should require contractors, workers, and material suppliers to sign a lien waiver. This is an acknowledgment that they have been compensated and that they agree to waive all lien rights.

Real Estate Finance and Investments 17th Edition by Brueggeman CH01

11) FALSE

A lessee is a person who leases land or property.

12) FALSE

Usually title is conveyed from one person (the grantor) to another (the grantee) by means of a written instrument called a deed.

13) C

The mortgage document provides the lender with evidence of a secured interest. This right has value to the lender and reduces the quantity of rights possessed by the owner.

14) A

A fee simple estate represents the most complete form of ownership of real estate, whereas a leasehold estate usually describes rights and interests obtained by tenants when leasing or renting a property. The latter is also a possessory interest and involves the general right to occupy and use the property during the period of possession.

15) A

An easement is a nonpossessory interest in land. It is the right to use land that is owned or leased by someone else for some special purpose.

16) C

A general warranty deed is the most commonly used deed in real estate transactions and the most desirable type of deed from the buyer's perspective. It offers the most comprehensive warranties about the quality of the title.

17) B

Usually title is conveyed from one person (the grantor) to another (the grantee) by means of a written instrument called a deed.

Real Estate Finance and Investments 17th Edition by Brueggeman CH01

18) A

A freehold estate lasts for an indefinite period of time; that is, there is no definitely ascertainable date on which the estate ends. A leasehold estate, on the other hand, expires on a definite date.

19) D

A quitclaim deed offers the grantee the least protection. Such a deed simply conveys to the grantee whatever rights, interests, and title that the grantor may have in the property. No warranties are made about the nature of these rights and interests or of the quality of the grantor's title to the property.

20) C

Usually title is conveyed from one person (the grantor) to another (the grantee) by means of a written instrument called a deed.

21) C

An abstract of title is a historical summary of the publicly recorded documents that affect a title.

22) A

In a tax sale, an accurate and complete description of the property is not required to be posted prior to the sale.

23) A

A reversionary interest can be sold or mortgaged because it is an actual interest in the property. A remainder exists when an owner wishes for another party to occupy and use a property for a specified number of years or for his life, then upon expiration of that time or upon his death, the estate is conveyed to a third party. Both types may be mortgaged or sold.

24) C

Real Estate Finance and Investments 17th Edition by Brueggeman CH01

In general, mechanics' liens give unpaid contractors, workers, and material suppliers the right to attach a lien on the real estate to which they added their labor or materials. These liens may not be disclosed in public records. To obtain the payment owed them, they may foreclose such liens by forcing a judicial sale of the encumbered property. They are then paid from the proceeds of the sale. The lien ends when the bills for the labor and/or materials have been paid.

25) C

All other items not considered realty have been designated as personalty, which includes all intangibles and movable things (e.g., automobiles, shares of stock, bank accounts, and patents).

26) B

Title is an abstract term frequently used to link an individual or entity who owns property to the property itself. When a person has "title," he is said to have all of the elements, including the documents, records, and acts that prove ownership.
